Dear [redacted]

STAT

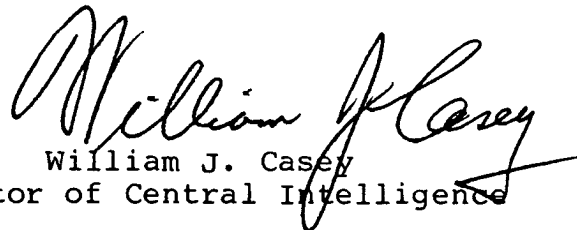

Words cannot express to you and your children my deeply felt sorrow over the loss of your husband. However, I want you to know that we in this Agency also share your feeling of loss. Your husband was a courageous man, who was loved and admired by his friends and colleagues. [redacted]

[redacted] A colleague who worked closely with [redacted] said he faithfully read his Bible and prayed every day. We will always honor his memory. Please let me know if there is anything we in the Agency can do for you during this difficult time, or at any time in the future. I hope that you will derive some comfort in knowing that he served this Agency and his country well.
